

The Owingsville Outlook.

VOL. XXX.

OWINGSVILLE, KENTUCKY, THURSDAY, NOV. 26, 1908.

NO. 20

TO SUBSCRIBERS.

The new postal ruling was enforced April 1. Subscribers who wish THE OUTLOOK to continue coming to them should watch their address labels and see that the date is ahead of the date of the next issue of the paper. The year for which a paper is paid for is indicated thus: 1909; meaning that the subscription is paid to January 15, 1909.

A rain Tuesday raised hopes of drouth-breaking again.

Best calico 5c, best outing 9c for cash at Mrs. Estill's.

The Fiscal Court of Claims will meet again Tuesday, Dec. 8.

Go to Mrs. Estill's for children's saques and caps, cheap.

John B. Donaldson is putting down a freestone walk in front of his residence.

The prospect now is that a full crop of tobacco will be planted in 1909 in Bath county.

Bring me your eggs. Highest market price paid for them in cash at Mrs. Estill's.

Such long continued dense smoke covering the country is remarkable even for Indian summer.

A woman is really to be commiserated when she can't have her own selection as to style of divorce.

B. M. Goodpastor's mare ran away on Wednesday of last week and wrecked the buggy on west Main street.

Elder N. C. Carpenter will preach at Harper's school-house the afternoon and night of Sunday, Nov. 29.

The Wyoff-Botts wedding at the Christian Church Wednesday night is the interesting social event this week.

For Sale: 100-acre farm of late James Horseman on Washington Branch. J. WILL HORSEMAN, RENNIA HORSEMAN.

Estill & Honaker have received a pair of Barcus horse stocks and can now shoe the wildest horse without danger to the animal. If LAND SALE.—Judge C. W. Goodpastor and Jeff L. Atchison sold their 206-acre Banta farm near Reynoldsville to R. S. Cross and Ashby H. Dawson at $75 per acre.

EYE DESTROYED.—James Thompson, of color, while working out a fine on the town rock-pile Monday was struck in the eye by a piece of rock and it is feared the eyesight is destroyed.

RESIDENCE BURNED.—The residence on the farm on Flat Creek belonging to Mrs. Sterling Dimmitt and occupied by Garrett Markland and George Blake and their families was burned Nov. 16. Part of the household stuff was saved.

DAY WE CELEBRATE.—Thanksgiving day will be duly celebrated with turkey dinners and oysters, church services and shooting game. The day in town is usually like Sunday, with the banks and part of the stores closed.

FOR RENT.—The residence of the late B. H. Ross, in the eastern suburb of Owingsville, at the junction of the Wyoming and McIntyre's Ferry turnpikes; two-story, six-room house and three and two-thirds acres of yard, garden and lot. A nice and convenient home. Apply at THE OUTLOOK office.

WHIRLWIND CAMPAIGN FOR EDUCATION IN KENTUCKY.—Every trustee, every teacher, every parent, every patriotic man and woman and every pupil—all are urged to be present at the School Rally at Owingsville Tuesday, December 1, at one o'clock p. m. Superintendent E. R. Jones, of Frankfort, will speak on the same day.

There will be speaking the same day at Sharpburg at ten o'clock a. m. and at Salt Lick at seven p. m. PICKETT METCALFE, Superintendent.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. T. H. Brown was in Mt. Sterling Monday.

Jason J. Mark, Circuit Clerk, remains seriously ill.

Elder R. M. Campbell returned from Danville Saturday.

Mrs. Ida Elliott went to Pineville last week on a business trip.

Grover Phelps, of Mississippi, is visiting his father, W. S. Phelps.

Mrs. John Scott went Saturday to visit her mother, at Bunker Hill.

Mrs. L. R. Slesser went to Cincinnati Sunday to buy holiday goods.

Worth Goodpastor, of upper Slate Creek, is growing worse of his ailment.

Miss Edna Vice, of lower Flat Creek, is visiting her sister Mrs. David Stamper.

Miss Sallie Estill, of Grange City, visited her aunt Mrs. Ida Jones this week.

D. N. Young and wife, of Mt. Sterling, spent Sunday with Wm. T. Warner, on upper Slate Creek.

O. H. Knight, wife and daughter Edith, of Sharpburg, were guests of James W. Shankland and wife the past week.

James Boaz came up from Paris last week to see his sister Mrs. S. N. Cassity, who has since died at her home on Jones' Branch.

James Pendleton, wife and baby, of Paris, spent a few days last week with Mrs. Pendleton's mother, Mrs. Bettie Crouch.

Misses Lodema and Lillian Wood, of Mt. Sterling, were expected Wednesday of this week to visit their aunt Mrs. John W. Honaker.

Mr. Hill, wife and son Basil, of Mt. Olivet, and Mrs. Walton and twin babies, of Flemingsburg, arrived Tuesday to visit Jas. Gillon and wife.

Mrs. John A. Daugherty returned Tuesday from Woodlawn, Ky., where she had been visiting her daughter Mrs. John E. Moss, who came home with her.

After a visit to their uncle Chas. A. Reid, Nelson Reid, of Bethel, and E. T. Judge, of Nicholas county, returned home the latter part of last week.

Rollie McIntyre, of Columbus, Ohio, who had been visiting his grandfather Mrs. Jane McIntyre near Preston, came Sunday to visit his uncle Price Jackson.

Mrs. F. P. Giddell brought her daughter Miss Louise home from the hospital at Louisville Saturday. Miss Louise is rapidly recovering from her surgical operation.

J. Wallace Barnes had a private sale Monday of his surplus household goods and he and his wife left at noon Tuesday for 327 South Broadway street, Lebanon, O., to make their home. Mr. and Mrs. Barnes are among our best people and the loss of their citizenship is regretted. However, Mr. Barnes retains his legal residence here and will come back to vote. The best wishes of their many friends go with them.

MRS. SAMUEL CASSITY DEAD.—Mrs. Samuel Cassity died Monday afternoon at her home on Jones' Branch. She had an attack of fever recently and had recovered, when she received a scratch on her hand, which had developed blood poisoning before the physician was called in. The disease had gone too far for remedy. The burial was made Wednesday morning in Owingsville Cemetery.

Deceased was aged about 55 years. She was a daughter of Thomas Boaz and wife and is survived by two brothers and three sisters: James, of Bourbon county; John, of the Mt. Sterling pike; Mrs. Frances Cline, west of town; Mrs. Flem Wells, of Indiana; Mrs. Stephen Reynolds, of Jones' Branch. She was married to Samuel Cassity when a young woman and their surviving children are Newton, at home; Willard and Oliver, of Danville, Ind.; Mrs. Newton Kincaid, of near home; and Mrs. Littleton Suladie, of Katy, Texas. Mrs. Cassity was a devoted member of the Christian church, an affectionate wife and mother, and a lady held in the best regard by her community. The stricken family have the sympathy of a host of friends in their sad bereavement.

GREATLY EXAGGERATED.—The announcement that R. H. Conner was putting down a freestone sidewalk along his property on Slate Avenue was greatly exaggerated, as he has no present or remote intention of doing the same voluntarily. And there are others.

POOLED TOBACCO ALL SOLD.

There was great rejoicing here when the word came last week that the deal between the Burley Tobacco Society and the American Tobacco Co. had been closed for seventy-five per cent. of the pooled tobacco. The representatives of each side came to an agreement about 4 o'clock p. m. Wednesday, Nov. 18, and the news spread over the Burley tobacco district as fast as the wires could carry it.

The trade was for 75 per cent. of the 1906 pool at scheduled prices and 75 per cent. of the 1907 pool at graded prices to average 17 cents per pound. That will make about 10,000,000 lbs. of 1906 and 60,000,000 lbs. of 1907 tobacco. The total amount will be about $12,000,000. The time for delivery is Nov. 24, 1908, to Feb. 1, 1909.

Thus ends the warfare which has been vigorously waged for three years, sometimes with a bitterness and violence that threatened the subversion of law and order. The organized growers have triumphed, but not without many a faint heart that was at first aggressively enthusiastic. Predictions were freely made by many of the more astute observers that the pool was bound to break down from the mighty resources of the Tobacco Trust and the necessities of the greater number of growers. And the success of the pool is undoubtedly a wonderful accomplishment when all things are considered.

The terrors of night-riding alienated from the Tobacco Society the sympathy and moral support of many good people who jumped at the unjust conclusion that the Society could have prevented night-riding. Perhaps no worthy cause on a great scale ever succeeded without much and gross wrong-doing by individual adherents. But that fact is not a sufficient argument against a great cause.

Bath county holders have about a million pounds of 1906 and three million pounds of the 1907 crops in the pool. Waller Sharp, of Sharpburg, has six hundred thousand; J. M. Richard, of Owingsville, has three hundred thousand and T. S. Shurtout two hundred and seventy-five thousand pounds. Mr. Shurtout is estimated to have made a profit of $15,000.

The balance of the tobacco is practically sold to the independent manufacturers and Tuesday of this week is set for a great meeting at Winchester to arrange for closing out the pool business.

MRS. SUSAN COYLE'S DEATH.—After a long illness of liver trouble, Mrs. Susan Coyle died Tuesday night, Nov. 17. Always delicate in health, quite likely the end was hastened by anxiety and grief during the long illness and on the death of her youngest child, Walter Coyle, who died the past summer.

Funeral services were held at the residence Thursday morning about 10:45 o'clock, Alex Conner reading a chapter in the Bible and making a prayer in the absence of Elder R. M. Campbell, who was detained at Danville by the illness of his wife. The interment was made in the family lot in the Owingsville Cemetery, where lie buried the husband and three elder children, George W. Coyle, James, Lizzie (wife of Jasper Lacy) and Lou Ann. Prayer was made at the grave by Mr. Conner. The pall-bearers were Dr. J. H. Taubee, Leslie Shurtout, C. W. Honaker, John W. Honaker, Ed L. Byron and W. P. Conner, Jr.

Deceased's maiden name was Green. She was born in 1839 and was reared in Owen county, where she was met and married by George W. Coyle, the brick man, in 1859. They came to his home in this county shortly after their marriage and lived here the balance of their lives, part of the time on Prickly Ash Creek and later a short distance east of Owingsville. Her husband died 18 or 20 years ago. Of their children there survive John H., Andrew, Clell (of Roe's Run) and Robert.

Mrs. Coyle was a home-loving and home-keeping woman, devoting her energies and life to the welfare of her family. Kind and good to all who came in her association with her, she impressed those who knew her as one of the best and gentlest of women and enjoyed the esteem and friendship of neighbors and acquaintances alike, who will miss and long mourn her.

Thomas H. Dudley, of Flemingsburg, had both eyes shot out recently by a companion, who fired at a flock of birds.

Have You Tried the Pocket?

For the fall and winter trade I have the largest and best stock I have ever carried. The celebrated Shield brand clothing; the Selz and other good makes of shoes; hats, overcoats, notions, furnishing goods, etc.

With more than thirty years' experience, and with one-fourth the expense of other houses in this line, I can and will sell you goods at less price than any store in this or any neighboring town. Everything as represented at

GILLON'S (in the Pocket),
Owingsville, Ky.

THE GUNNERS.—The like of the partridge and rabbit hunters this fall was never seen before. They simply cover the country and the boom of the guns from morning till night is like warfare. Rabbits have been very plentiful, but partridges are seldom bagged, as the few flocks that are left promptly take to the bushes when flushed.

TO SAVE TIME.—The pigeons that roost on the hands of the Court-house clock and derange the time were further depleted last Thursday morning by some of the local gunners, who began a bombardment on them at day-break and made folks think there was a premature celebration of Christmas.

MORGAN OUT ON BOND.—Harry Morgan, charged with cutting and wounding Tommy G. Daugherty, was brought back from the Maysville jail to Flemingsburg last week and admitted to bail in the sum of $500, which he gave. His examining trial is set for Nov. 27. Daugherty will be able to appear as a witness at the trial.

BARN BURNED.—Thomas F. Razor's barn near Moore's Ferry was burned one day last week, consuming a lot of corn, hay and other feed stuff, lumber and machinery. The barn caught from a gasoline engine used in operating a corn shredder outside of but near the building.

A sprinkle of rain and the sun shining was the best Monday could do in the drouth-breaking line.

Commissioner's Sale.

BATH CIRCUIT COURT.
J. B. Goodpastor, Plaintiff, vs.
Perry Oakley, Defendant.

By virtue of a judgment and order of sale of the Bath Circuit Court rendered at the October term, 1908, in the above-styled case the undersigned Master Commissioner, will, on the 14th DAY OF DECEMBER, 1908, at about one o'clock p. m., sell to the highest bidder at public outcry at the Court-house door in Owingsville, Kentucky, a parcel of real estate lying in Bath county, Ky., and bounded as follows: Beginning at a corner on the Preston pike near the lowest gate post of the old passway gate on Peel Oak Branch, thence south with the old Kelsoe line to a corner in the line of Thomas Botts and the Hicks farm, thence east with the line of said Kelsoe and Hicks and Botts, negroes, to a corner in the line of the old Wade place, thence north to a tract of land now occupied by William Botts, of color, with the Botts line fence to the county road, thence with the county road to a beech tree near north bar post in the west side of road, thence running west in a straight line to a corner near a red oak stump, thence near the persimmon orchard, thence north with the old passway road to a corner south of the graveyard, thence north of west on a straight line to a corner on the east side of the old passway road near a sycamore tree on the east branch of Peel Oak Branch, thence with the bluff of said branch to a sugar tree, thence west across said branch to the beginning; containing about one hundred and twenty-five acres more or less. Enough of said land will be sold to satisfy plaintiff's debt, interest and costs, which on day of sale will aggregate $290.54.

Sale will be made on a credit of six months for the purchase price. The purchaser will be required to execute a sale bond with good surety payable to the Master Commissioner, bearing six per cent. interest per annum from day of sale until paid, having the force and effect of a judgment. The purchase price will remain a lien on the property until it is paid. JOHN A. JUDY, Master Commissioner Montgomery Circuit Court.

SHOUT-POWER WEDDING.—De Witt C. Shurtout and Mrs. Mag Power were married by Elder R. M. Campbell at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Ann Arnold, on Coyle street, about 8 o'clock p. m., Tuesday, Nov. 24. The bride is the widow of Stoner Power. She is a handsome and charming young woman. The bridegroom is a prosperous farmer of Harper's Branch and is one of our best citizens, being a son of Isaac Shurtout, deceased. Mr. and Mrs. Shurtout are heartily congratulated. They went to Mr. Shurtout's home immediately after the ceremony.

STORE ROBBER.—O. P. Shurtout's store at Moore's Ferry was robbed of some goods Monday night, Nov. 16. Bloodhounds were secured next day from Mt. Sterling and they followed a trail to Licking river, where it is supposed the robbers took a boat. No further trace could be found.

FOR SALE.—Two frame buildings of Odd Fellows' Hall Co. to be removed from lot on Vimont street. Apply to R. S. Estill and G. W. Boyd.

RURAL REPARTEE.—"Sary," snickered young Abe Cornstossel. "I kinder think I'll put myself on the Christmas tree fer ye this year." "If yer do, Abe," giggled Sary, "they'll not take yer off this year. They'll let you stay there until yer git ripe enough to pick."
